SUMMER WORSHIP SCHEDULE

From the Church Moderator

The week of June 17, 2012, was an eventful one for Center Church. On Sunday, the Congregation voted unanimously to approve the "Designated Term Ministry" process as the way to proceed in filling our pastoral ministry vacancy here at the First Church of Christ in Hartford. A document provided by our Regional Conference Minister, The Rev. Ineke Mitchell, was circulated and discussed prior to the vote. That document (DESIGNATED TERM MINISTRY) is now available on the Center Church website. The pertinent passage for us refers to "a church where the regular search & call process may have occurred in the recent past, but where circumstances unfolded in the immediate aftermath (within the first two years of the call/installation of the departing pastor) where the energy needed to invest in another lengthy process may be detrimental to the health and welfare of the mission of the congregation." It is apparent that this passage fits our situation at Center Church. In such a situation, the document notes, "the designated term pastor could continue as the settled pastor after the designated term is completed" and "the church, at the end of the designated (three year) term, will determine whether to:

- a. enter into the regular search and call process...;
- b. extend to the designated term pastor the call to be the settled pastor;
- c. renew the designated term call to the current pastor, or
- d. seek another designated term pastor.

Since a designated term ministry is a called position, the responsibilities of the Association (Hartford) and Conference (Connecticut) are the same as they would be for authorization for ministry in any other situation."

We are embarking upon a totally new path at the First Church of Christ in Hartford. To facilitate this course of action, a second motion was voted, again unanimously, to authorize a Transitional Committee to work out an Agreement of Call, in collaboration with the Connecticut Conference, United Church of Christ, and Hartford Association, through its Committee on Credentials and Ministerial Standing. Our guide and resource in this work will be our Regional Conference Minister, The Rev. Ineke Mitchell. The persons elected to serve on this Transition Committee are Ileia Belton, Dectora Jeffers, Richard Markham, Edward Turner, Jr., Deborah Tuthill, and William Warner-Prouty. The major task of this committee will be to seek and extend a "Call" to a person recommended through the offices of the Connecticut Conference to serve as pastor for a designated period of three years, with, as the above document suggests, the option of continuing the relationship for an indefinite period of time.

The work of your Transition Committee is well under way. On Tuesday evening, June 19, we held an open meeting with a consultant, The Rev. Russ Crabtree (made available to us through our Connecticut Conference) to learn about various approaches to a time of transition in the life of a congregation. Rev. Crabtree shared methods designed to enable us to build upon the Rev. Paulo Franca's ministry, learn from his exit interview held on May 22, and extend a call to a pastor. With a new pastor, we can look upon the next three years as a time for us to continue to learn, acknowledge the "shadow side" of our experience as a congregation, grow as a community of faith, and further seek to realize our Guiding Principles---

'seeking to be a community of service and caring, opening our buildings to ministry and sanctuary, while embracing the diversity of the city in all its richness of human expression' and remembering that 'as an open community, we seek to connect with people through worship and outreach. Honoring our heritage of responding to the challenging needs of the city of Hartford we can celebrate God's presence among us.'

I believe "God is still speaking" through the First Church of Christ in Hartford, so, stay tuned. I expect that new possibilities will be unfolding during the next couple of months at Center Church. It has been a difficult spring, but spring is yet a time of growth toward summer harvest.

Yours in faith,

Bill Warner-Prouty, Moderator

MUSICAL NOTES

By Jason Charneski

This issue's column is a bit of a hodge-podge. Please read on and mark your calendars or make notes!

Our Music and the Arts programs continue this summer with a full complement of performers slated for the Wednesday noontime "Play It on the Portico" series (please see flyer elsewhere in this newsletter for the listing of dates and artists). These FREE lunchtime events, performed outdoors, on the Meeting House's portico, are a wonderful way to offer some cultural life to the city and demonstrate our commitment to diversity. Please plan to stop by and offer yourself, through your presence, as a witness to the good things we are doing! Invite your friends, too!

I'm pleased to announce a long-lasting follow-up to and memento of our Two Choirs concert this past April, this being a CD of the concert that will go into production later this summer, after the mechanical licenses (per copyrights) have been secured. This project, like the concert itself, is a joint venture of Music and the Arts at Center Church and The Music Series at South Church. We aim to have this new CD, titled "Jubilate Deo: Canticles for Choirs," available for purchase in September. Our goal is to make it affordable (in the range of $10 per copy), akin to our Center Church Choir-only CD that we released last September. You might consider this to be a good Christmas gift idea...

Please remember our Warburton Choral Scholars program! If you know of a college student who attends a school in the area and might be interested in singing with the Center Church Choir this next season, please have them contact me. Important: they need not be a music major; rather, we seek students with musical ensemble experience and the ability to read music.

We look ahead to the 2012-2013 season of Music and the Arts at Center Church

CANTUS -- the Minneapolis-based all-male professional chamber choir

A concert program titled "ON THE SHOULDERS OF GIANTS"

This will be a ticketed event -- details to be published later this summer.

Two other events that I hope you'll plan to attend:

- 1) We look to have the Center Church Choir offer a concert the evening of Wednesday, May 1, 2013.
- 2) We will welcome the Sundance Trio (oboe, bassoon, and piano) the evening of Thursday, May 23, 2013. This ensemble, based at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah, approached us about use of the Meeting House, having heard – somehow (who knows how reputations spread!) – about the glories of the space. This concert will enable us to raise some funds for our music programs!

- pasta
- spaghetti sauce
- tuna

Ancient Burying Ground Youth Tours Summer, 2012

The Ancient Burying Ground Youth Group, led by Andrea Ader, is again offering tours of the Ancient Burying Ground during the summer. We are providing space in the Church House through July 27 for the group to meet and “cool off” between tours. The teens are always fascinated by Center Church’s incredible history. We look forward to another great summer with them!

STAFFING ASSESSMENT TASK FORCE (SATF) REPORT TO PRUDENTIAL

On June 5, the SATF presented its report and recommendations to Prudential. The reactions and comments were favorable, and the report was received with appreciation. It was noted that there is much work to do, with several open positions. Search mechanisms are being established for each one. Members who would like to receive a copy of the report may contact the Church Office.

CENTER CHURCH T-SHIRTS NOW AVAILABLE!

TESTIMONIAL TO BEES

Bees attend to their work, which is to pollinate.
In the spring and summer
they show up

in gardens and berry patches, fertilizing blossoms of every variety, including those on apple trees, tomato plants, squash vines
and various kinds of flowers.

When I went out to the blueberry bushes,
the musical buzzing
of all those bees reminded me they were making it possible for berries to emerge.

Not being a beekeeper and having no hives
I wonder where these bees live.
Perhaps in the trunk of a tree?

But what a barren place this would be, if these particular insects weren't around!

They work long hours,
only taking time off when it rains.
