From the Minister

“What God does first and best and most is to trust God’s people with this moment in history. God trust them to do what must be done for the sake of the whole community.”

--Walter Brueggemann

Dear Family,

The season of Lent is traditionally a time of meditation, prayer, and renewal. It is a time to take inventory of those things we need to relinquish, embrace new disciplines, and seek God with wholeheartedness, humility and vulnerability. It is during this time that I invite you to reflect upon what it would mean for us, as a community of faith, enter intentionally into a process transformation.

In January, we received Russ Crabtree, our consultant from Holy Cow Consulting. He presented the results of the congregational survey, which yielded the following findings:

The congregation’s current high-level priorities are to:

- Make the necessary changes to attract families with children and youth to our church.
- Develop and implement a comprehensive strategy to reach new people and incorporate them into the life of the church.
- Work to renew and revitalize the community around the church by building coalitions with partners that share this same vision and commitment.
- Provide more opportunities for Christian education and spiritual formation at every age and stage of life.

Mid-level priorities:

- Work as an advocate for social and institutional change, so that society might better reflect the values of the kingdom of God.
- Change or improve the music of the church to deepen our worship experience.

As you know, we are continuing the conversation through Cottage Meetings. I hope that we are all willing to continue to be part of this process, as it is imperative for our health and our future. Please see the listing below.

The church is a living organism. Just like a body, it possesses, internally, its own renewal rate. Health is an internal continuous process. Thankfully, we have the strength of the Holy Spirit to boost our immune system. Let us embrace this time as a gift from God, for I truly believe that we are pregnant with God’s purpose. We will experience pain while giving birth, but let us continue to push, for the rewards are beyond what we can imagine.

Paz,

(Rev.) Damaris D. Whittaker,
Minister

Music and the Arts at Center Church will present CANTUS, the Minneapolis-based men's professional vocal ensemble, in concert on Sunday, April 21, 2013, at 4:00 p.m. "Fanfare" magazine has dubbed CANTUS "...the premier men's vocal ensemble in the United States."

The program, titled "On the Shoulders of Giants," will be eclectic -- everything from 12th-century Paris (organum by Perotin) to 20th-century pop (Michael Jackson's "Heal the World"); from Randall Thompson's "Alleluia" to John Lennon and Paul McCartney's "I Want to Hold Your Hand;" from Tomas Luis de Victoria's setting of "O Vos Omnes" to Gordon Lightfoot's most well-known song, "The Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald" and a little bit of everything in between, including works by Schubert, Schumann, Mendelssohn, Steven Sametz, Bono, Sibelius, and Grieg. Should the audience's appreciation necessitate an encore, the men will sing the much-beloved setting of "Ave Maria" by Franz Biebl. This is a program that has something for everyone!

Tickets: $40 premium (a limited number available at this price); $25 general ($20 for Greater Hartford Arts Council "Let's Go Arts" card holders); $15 students/seniors. WE ARE WILLING MAKE DEALS FOR GROUPS OF 10 OR MORE; thus, for groups and all: To order tickets in advance, please call me at 860-249-5631, ext. 19. ## MUSIC TO ACCOMPANY OUR JOURNEY THROUGH LENT TO EASTER

What music might the choir be planning to offer in the worship of God as we continue and finish the Lenten journey and proclaim the shouts of resurrection victory and joy on Easter morning? A foretaste:

On March 3, the Third Sunday in Lent and participation in the Sacrament of Holy Communion, will include standard Communion text settings (Kyrie eleison [Lord, have mercy], Sanctus et Benedictus [Holy, Holy, Holy... and Blessed is he...], and Agnus Dei [Lamb of God]) by William Mathias, and Ned Rorem's simple "Sing, My Soul, His Wondrous Love," this to complement a theme of grace as found in the day's Gospel lesson (Luke 13:1-9).

The Parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32) on March 10 affords the opportunity to again explore a theme of grace, this musically through Maurice Bevan's setting of Frederick W. Faber's text, "There's a Wideness in God's Mercy." On March 17, Johannes Brahms's tear-like setting of Paul Fleming's "Let Nothing Ever Grieve Thee" will paint in different colors the account in John 12:1-8 of Mary wiping Jesus' feet with costly nard.

The Palm Sunday (March 24) procession of Jesus into Jerusalem is accompanied musically with shouts of words from Psalm 24, "Lift Up Your Heads, O Ye Gates," in a setting by William Mathias. The awkwardness of that procession leads to the holy-yet-mysterious happenings in the upper room on Maundy Thursday (March 28), as we come again to the Communion Table with liturgical settings by Franz Schubert and the much-beloved “The Invited” by Hubert Bird. The Service of Tenebrae that concludes worship on Maundy Thursday afford the sopranos and altos of the choir the right time to sing words from the 16th century, the “Corpus Christi Carol,” as set by Paul Drayton. A quartet of solo voices will bid us to mourn awhile with “Were You There?”

Easter morning (March 31) cannot come too soon, especially in words from the Song of Solomon, “Arise, my love, my fair one,” as set by Healey Willan. Trumpet and grand organ will inspire and lead our hymn singing, and the choir will celebrate the joy of the day by looking back to Hebrew scripture – the first sin – in medieval words, “Adam Lay Ybounden” set by Hubert Bird, and by looking forward – to the restoration of all – with the “Hallelujah!” from Messiah. In addition, the sung congregational “Glory to God the Creator” will return and we’ll all have opportunity to travel, musically, to the Caribbean through “Halle, Halle, Halle” as a Gospel acclamation.

This “Old Ship of Zion” (yea, House!) known as Center Church makes a call at port each Sunday morning. I hope you will choose to “...get on board!”

OUTREACH MINISTRY NEWS

Outreach Co-Chair Deborah Tuhill's Outreach Ministries Update article was recently included on the CT-UCC's website and in their last edition of ConnTact, the Conference newspaper:

Ministry Downtown

By Deborah Tuhill

HARTFORD (2/16/2013) -- Center Church, the First Church of Christ in Hartford UCC, is located in the heart of downtown. Our neighbors include corporations, high-rise dwellers, the Wadsworth Atheneum, the low income, and the homeless. It is our stated goal to be welcoming to all. To that end, we have initiated various programs in which we hope some of our neighbors will be served, and others of our neighbors will serve. Faith without works is dead (James 2:17).

Rebecca Richards, our new Director of Outreach Ministries, has expanded our Saturday Breakfast Program offer the first meal of the day to our less fortunate neighbors three Saturdays a month. Center Church has invited suburban congregations and organizations to participate in this effort. Each week a different group purchases, prepares, and serves breakfast to all who come. We invite all congregations and organizations who are interested to contact us. We can always make room for more volunteers.

Outreach Ministries Budget Update

From the Board of Outreach

The Crabtree Survey clearly showed our congregations priorities. Foremost is the desire to attract new families to our church and our church school. Also high in the priorities scale is our desire to minister to our Hartford neighbors through a vital and active Outreach program.

Your Outreach Board has been blessed in the last few years with a burst of energy which has generated new ideas and new partners who share our desires to actively engage the members of our immediate community, whether they are living in the high rises or the street. We have invited people and programs to utilize our spaces. We have invested our financial resources in ways that increase our visibility in the community and our usefulness to our neighbors.

Center Church, under the leadership of Rev. Damaris Whittaker, has made a commitment to our congregation to enhance and expand our Outreach programs in new and exciting ways. Our Church School is an essential part of our Outreach plan. New families will be looking for an active Christian Education program when deciding where to worship. With Rev. Whittaker's help and guidance, it has become clear that changes need to occur in our thinking about Christian Education and how we implement these new ideas. These new ideas will cost money. Our overall budget needs to reflect our commitment to these ideas. It is for this reason that the Outreach Board decided this year to forgo some of our funding from the collection plate, and direct those funds to the Christian Education fund, an important element in the Outreach of Center Church.

Outreach Report from Camp Asto Wamah

Since the very beginning of Center Church Camp Asto Wamah, 104 years ago, there has been a commitment to providing a camping experience to children regardless of their financial means. So, for decades, Asto Wamah has provided camperships to needy families so that their children can be part of this supportive environment where children can grow and develop the skills and attitudes of healthy community living.

When we think of the Outreach efforts of Center Church, we must include the impact Center Church Camp has had on the many lives of the children it has touched over the decades. In 2012, forty-five children attended for a total of 99 weeks as a result of financial aid.

The institutions and churches that have identified the children have changed over the years. The one constant that remains is the need for such opportunities in under-served communities. Today we work with Family School Connection of Hands on Hartford, Grace Academy, Covenant Prep, East Hartford Youth Services and O'Brien School in East Hartford. Of course the children in our Church School have forever been included. There is also another group of young people who have been identified in a wide range of places by individuals who work with them and care about seeking out valuable experiences for them.

When the contributions of individuals and the Trustees of the Warburton Chapel are subtracted from the total expense of the 2012 camperships, the balance remaining is $30,000. This outreach provided by CCCAW continues to be a focus and of major importance to camp and its mission.

Backpack Food Drive

Center Church is having a food drive for Hands on Hartford's Backpack Nutrition Program for low-income Hartford school children, many of whom depend on eating breakfast and lunch at school Monday through Friday. The Backpack Nutrition Program helps provide their families with enough food to eat over the weekend. Each Friday, 275 backpacks are prepared with 3-4 lbs. of "kid friendly" and healthy food. The backpacks are distributed to children in six Hartford elementary schools. Backpacks are then returned on Monday to be cleaned and repacked for the following weekend.

Center Church will collect food on Sunday, March 17 through Sunday, March 24. Bring your contributions to church or to the Church House, where you will find collection boxes. Cash/checks may be donated in Backpack Food Drive envelopes, if that is easier for you. The envelopes may be placed in the offering plates during worship, or given/sent to Marie's attention in the Church Office. Please make checks payable to "Center Church," with the Backpack Food Drive noted on the "memo" line.

Suggestions for food donations include the following items that are individually wrapped:

Juice boxes
Applesauce cups
Soup cups/packs
Mac & cheese cups
Granola bars
Cereal bars

Instant oatmeal packs
Trail mix packs
Raisin boxes
Pretzel packs
Fruit cups
Goldfish packs

If you have any questions, please contact Rebecca Richards ([860] 249-5631) or Robin Roy ([860] 523-3149.)

Hartford school children, Hands on Hartford, and the Trustees of the Warburton Chapel thank you for your generosity.

From the Warburton Director of Outreach Ministries

Greetings!

I would like to personally thank each and every person who has helped make our ministry to the community possible. Because of your contributions, the Outreach Ministry at Center Church have been going wonderfully and growing!

- We now hold Community Breakfast every Saturday, except the first Saturday of the month. We have had an increase of people attending and sometimes see between 70-80 people each week. Because of the increase in number of weeks, we are looking for new groups to host. If you know of any organization that might be interested in hosting a breakfast, please let Rebecca know.
- Sunday Morning Coffee Ministry also continues to grow. It is lovely to hear and see the people on the portico each and every Sunday. Thanks to our partnership with the Brazilian Alliance, we have had a steady stream of volunteers for each Sunday. We are always in need of volunteers to coordinate a month or help out serving coffee for a week.
- Beat of the Street and the Center for Creative Learning continue to meet in the Church House, and we have been working on cultivating the relationships with these groups. In April, we will be hosting a Poetry evening in which members of this group will share their poetry with us.
- True Colors continues to host gatherings in the Church House basement. A good time is always had by all.

If you are interested in getting involved in any of these activities, please contact me, Rebecca Richards, Warburton Director of Outreach at Rebecca@centerchurchhartford.net or by calling the Church Office. These are great ways to meet and get to know the members of our community and be in service.

Peace and Blessings,
Rebecca

Notes from Community Meals (at Christ Church Cathedral)

One night after a busy evening of cooking and serving our clients, I was helping clean up the room, and I heard what I thought was a professional recording of a female singer. As I approached the woman, I asked her who was the recording artist who sang the beautiful song. She said it was she who was singing, and that she was singing to a friend who was not doing well. I was speechless -- I know that is hard to believe, but I was! I asked her if she would sing something special to the workers as we cleaned the tables. She did, and it was so wonderful.

The experiences we each capture from Community Meals could fill volumes. It is just two hours of work -- chopping vegetables, cooking pasta and hamburger, and mixing in the sauce, cutting and buttering the bread, mixing the salad, cutting the cakes, and pouring the cider. Then -- serving. Sounds like what all of us do every night at our own homes. But the difference at Community Meals? What you get out of it. The appreciation from the clients sends us off with blessings far greater than we would ever get if we did the same work at home.

I can't say enough about this ministry. You have to come down and experience it for yourself. If you have an interest in joining our teams, let us know and we will be glad to introduce you to a great experience!

The Courage to Be in Community – In Light of Paul Tillich's Sermon, "You Are Accepted"

April 7, 2013

(originally scheduled for February 10, 2013)

On December 16 as part of "The Great Sermons" series, we discussed "You Are Accepted" by Paul Tillich. In the course of our discussion, we identified several interesting topics, which we did not have time to discuss. We will discuss one of those topics on April 7. Tillich wrote the following about grace striking human beings:

Sometimes at that moment a wave of light breaks into our darkness, and it is as though a voice were saying: "You are accepted. You are accepted, accepted by that which is greater than you, and the name of which you do not know.

Please join us as we discuss some of the challenges and the implications of simply accepting the fact that you are accepted.

"The Lost Gospel Q: The Original Sayings of Jesus" New Series Beginning on April 14, 2013

In the introduction to the book we will be using, Thomas Moore writes:

The Lost Gospel Q, the scholars' best attempt to render the pure voice of the Gospel Jesus, offers us an extraordinary opportunity to approach with an open mind, fresh ears and new understanding the good news of the mysterious kingdom that Jesus announced. Reading these simple but puzzling words is like sitting in the presence of a teacher. Here we have the opportunity to listen actively and individually to a real voice, to catch the nuances and perceive the personality.
